

Caring for Your Baby

My baby sometimes cries and it seems like it's for no reason. Is this normal?

- Babies cry to communicate and let you know if they need something.
- Most babies cry often, up to 1-3 hours per day, from 2-8 weeks of age.
- Babies will often be fussy around supper time and into the early evening or night.