

2019-2020 Interprofessional Education (IPE) Electives Catalogue

For registration and inquiries, please contact interprofessionaledreg@trilliumhealthpartners.ca

Session Title	Date and Time	Location	Session Description
My First Patient Death	Wednesday, January 15, 2020 6:00 to 8:00pm	MH – CA7 –21	Discuss this important topic using an ethical, empathetic framework within an Interprofessional team approach. Exposure Credit
Incivility in the Workplace	Tuesday, January 21, 2020 2:00 to 4:00pm	MH – CA7 –21	Join this group as we address communication strategies to enhance harmony in the workplace. Immersion Credit
Patient Experience and Virtual Reality: Using Immersive Video to Invoke Empathy in Practice	Wednesday, January 22, 2020 4:00 to 6:00pm	MH – CA7 –21	Have you ever wondered what it's like to be a patient? Our virtual reality simulation is a unique opportunity to experience a clinical encounter through the perspective of a patient and to discuss the importance of empathy in healthcare as it relates to the wellbeing of patients, clinicians and our colleagues. Open to Medical and Occupational Therapy learners only. Exposure Credit
Interprofessional Morning Report	Thursday, January 23, 2020 8:00 to 9:00am	CVH – Clinical Learning Lab (2F393)	An interactive session within the inpatient General Medicine service to discuss patient cases applying the principles of Interprofessional Education. Open to 3 rd and 4 th year medical learners and learners from all other health professions. Immersion Credit
Antimicrobial Stewardship	Tuesday, February 4, 2020 2:30 to 4:30pm	CVH – 1G-172	Learn why Antimicrobial Stewardship is essential to patient safety in preventing hospital-acquired infections due to organisms such as C. difficile and Pseudomonas aeruginosa that cause morbidity and mortality in a healthcare setting. Exposure Credit
Faces of Healthcare - A Student Led IPE Elective	Wednesday, February 12, 2020 1:00 to 3:00pm	UTM – HSC-150	Using real life stories to highlight the patient experience and opportunities for collaboration between different health

Session Title	Date and Time	Location	Session Description
Reflective Practice	Tuesday, February 18, 2020 2:00 to 4:00pm	MH - CA7 -21	professionals. Open to Medical and Occupational Therapy learners only. Exposure Credit Join this group to learn the benefits of reflective practice and how it enhances deep learning and practice excellence. Immersion Credit
The Next Step in HIV Prevention: Pre-exposure Prophylaxis (PrEP)	Wednesday, February 26, 2020 2:00 to 4:00pm	CVH - 0A104	Learn more on this topic while considering challenges around PrEP, ethics and patient counselling in this interactive session led by the Peel HIV/AIDS Network. Exposure Credit
Dietetics: Collaborating with Dietitians	Tuesday, March 3, 2020 2:00 to 4:00pm	UTM - HSC-140	Look at evidence-based strategies to empower friends and family about healthy weight loss through an Interprofessional team approach. Exposure Credit
Innovation in Healthcare	Wednesday, March 25, 2020 2:30 to 4:30pm	CVH - Rehabilitation Meeting Room (1F549)	The course will help introduce IPE students to Design Thinking, one of the fundamental methodologies utilized to create innovative solutions to difficult problem. Students will have an opportunity to learn and apply the framework to develop a solution for a real patient challenge. Exposure Credit
Interprofessional Morning Report	Friday, March 27, 2020 8:30 to 9:30am	MH - CA4 Large Boardroom A	An interactive session within the inpatient General Medicine service to discuss patient cases applying the principles of Interprofessional Education. Open to 3 rd and 4 th year medical learners and learners from all other health professions. Immersion Credit
To Err is Human	Tuesday, March 31, 2020 2:00 to 4:00pm	CVH - 1G-172	This elective will provide students with an overview of the current methods to detect, analyze and prevent patient harm. The session will focus on a series of cases highlighting the importance of interprofessional collaboration in this vital field of modern healthcare. Exposure Credit

Session Title	Date and Time	Location	Session Description
Interprofessional Intentional Empathy Centered Care (IP-IECC) in Healthcare Practice Settings	Wednesday, April 8, 2020 2:30 to 4:30pm	CVH - 0A104	Exploring the conceptualization and operationalization of empathy practice with patients and families in interprofessional team settings. In this session, students will reflect on team practice, strategies for intentional empathy practice, and engage in case based discussion. Exposure Credit
Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence	Wednesday, April 22, 2020 2:00 to 4:00pm	MH - CA7-21	Explore the myths and facts of sexual assault and domestic violence in the context of caring for this population through scenarios using an ethical, empathetic decision-making framework and an Interprofessional approach. Exposure Credit
My First Patient Death	Wednesday, April 29, 2020 6:00 to 8:00pm	UTM - HSC-150	Discuss this important topic using an ethical, empathetic framework within an Interprofessional team approach. Exposure Credit
Making Ethical Decisions	Tuesday, May 5, 2020 2:00 to 5:00pm	CVH - 1G-172	With students from other professions, work through challenging ethical scenarios using an ethical decision-making framework. Immersion Credit
Interprofessional Morning Report	Thursday, June 4, 2020 8:00 to 9:00am	CVH - Rehabilitation Services Meeting Room (1F549)	An interactive session within the inpatient General Medicine service to discuss patient cases applying the principles of Interprofessional Education. Open to 3 rd and 4 th year medical learners and learners from all other health professions. Immersion Credit
Interprofessional Morning Report	Friday, July 31, 2020 8:30 to 9:30am	MH - CA4 Large Boardroom A	An interactive session within the inpatient General Medicine service to discuss patient cases applying the principles of Interprofessional Education. Open to 3 rd and 4 th year medical learners and learners from all other health professions. Immersion Credit